

Please join the Board of Directors of Public Ed Works, along with special guests Roy Williams, retired Coach of the UNC Tar Heels, NC Educators, and other friends for a special evening celebrating 10 years of advocacy for investment in public education in North Carolina and the 90th birthday of our founder, Paul Fulton!

Public Ed Works is proud to have championed investment in public education, advocating for increased pre-K enrollment, teacher pay, the teacher pipeline, and a balanced governance of our outstanding community college and 4-year college/university systems. We are number one in business. Let's become number one in public education.
